

Due to maternity leave, Volleyball Southland is looking for an energetic person to fill the position of Development Officer.

This position is a one-year contract. The successful applicant will commence on 29 March, 2010.

The Development Officer is required to develop and promote the sport of Volleyball. This includes the provision of quality training opportunities to assist in the development of coaches, referees, administrators and players; and the development of programmes to increase participation across all levels of the game. Experience with general office duties will be an advantage as will a love of volleyball.

A full copy of the job description is available online at www.volleysouth.org.nz.

Please post or e-mail your C.V. with a covering letter and two referees' to:

Melanie Jones
Volleyball Southland
P O Box 224
Invercargill 9840
volleysouth@xtra.co.nz

Applications close Monday March 1, 2010.